

NEW BEGINNINGS

UPDATES FROM CASA LIBERDADE

There is much to be thankful for, and we say a BIG THANK YOU to you for your support and generosity since 2013 we have been able to hand over to Casa Liberdade close to the figure of £3,000 and another £3,000+ to sustain and support missionaries working in the area of sex trafficking in Brazil. You have helped to refurbish the house for rescued victims, part of which included a brand new kitchen designed by a social business called "Solid" which employs young men who would be at high risk to criminal influence in poor communities. This business also helps create funding for ministries and missionaries who work with children from difficult backgrounds and poor communities. We received a very generous donation from Switzerland that enabled us to complete the kitchen to be able to give the girls the best.

Dear friends,

Thank you so much for your continued love and support for this ministry. Firstly I would like to apologise for the big gap in-between the newsletters, due to organising a wedding and other events but thanks to being blessed with a new computer, technical things are becoming much simpler.

Secondly, many of you may already have met or know about the very lovely young man in the picture above but I thought that he deserves a proper introduction for those of you who do not yet know him.

This is Ricardo (Brandao), he's 25 years old and is from Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. God brought us together at a conference in Campinas, Sao Paulo where we were both invited to minister. Ricardo is a missionary who also has been working against Sex Trafficking since 2013, and has served in Recife with an American mission called Shores of Grace, where he also learnt to speak and translate english.

We arrived in Northern Ireland at Christmas and soon after Ricardo met the parents, we got engaged and then married on the 29th of April this year - we would so appreciate your prayers and support as we begin a new life together as a married couple. We spent the last 5 months visiting our supporting churches but also making new connections and friendships. We are due to go back to Brazil at the beginning of June, where we will set up our home to continue the work that we have begun with Casa Liberdade and with Hangar 7 (local church) in Sao Paulo.
