

Support Ricardo & Kat in Brazil

Fight for Flight is a Northern Ireland based charity, set up to financially and prayerfully support ministries like Casa Liberdade in São Paulo, who rescue, restore and disciple survivors of sex trafficking & exploitation.

Brazil is 2nd in the world for Child Sex Trafficking...

Since 2014 We have raised over £8,000 for the work against sex trafficking in Brazil...

Ricardo & Kats have a vision to open a "Northern Irish cafe to help provide work for survivors of trafficking re-entering Society after rescue & restoration...

Ricardo and Kat are a young couple based in São Paulo, Brazil.

They have made it their mandate to help liberate children and women enslaved by sex trafficking and exploitation.

It is their passion to walk alongside the church of Jesus, in love, to build up the body through discipleship and worship.

Their heart is to reconnect His bride with the reality of mission. But they need YOUR help to continue His calling on their lives
